

30 November 2023

Scotland and Wales Executive Committees - Nominations now open

Branches in Scotland and Wales are encouraged to hold meetings to make nominations for the upcoming elections to the Scotland and Wales Executive Committees.

Following the inaugural devolved policy conferences which took place in October, elections will now take place to select the members and officers of the Scotland Executive Committee and Wales Executive Committee.

Branches with members employed in Scotland or Wales will have the opportunity to nominate candidates for the Executive Committees. Nominations for both committees must be submitted by 5pm on 7 December 2023.

In Scotland, branches are asked to make nominations for:

- Co-Convenor – 2 to be elected
- Deputy Convenor – 2 to be elected
- Scotland Executive Committee – 14 to be elected

In Wales, branches are asked to make nominations for:

- Chair – 1 to be elected
- Vice chair – 3 to be elected
- Wales Executive Committee – 12 to be elected

Regulations

Regulations, nomination papers and the constitutions of both committees are available now on PCS Digital.

Scotland – Constitution, regulations and nomination papers

Wales – Constitution, regulations and nomination papers