The PCS Professional and Managers Association

The PCS Professional and Managers Association (PMA) is a network of members working in job roles graded HEO and above (or equivalents) who typically are managers or who have a professional qualification or hold a post where a professional qualification is required.

Be part of a growing and supportive network. Go to pcs.org.uk/pma
Follow us on twitter @pcs_pma

Here are 6 reasons for joining PMA:

- Access to information/resources/ advice on the issues affecting PMA members including Performance Management, Targets and Objectives, Wellbeing at Work and handling of grievances
- To promote equal opportunities and a work-life balance for managers and their staff

- To gain access to PMA training for PCS members
- To receive regular communications including “PMA News”
- To promote professional standards in the delivery of civil and public services
- To be part of a trade union prepared to speak and act for PMA grades.

Help us build support and increase the voice of PMA members by registering and persuading colleagues to sign up too.

How to register for the PMA

You can register via PCS iMembership. Just log in from the PCS homepage. Select iMembership > my work details select edit, tick PMA box and then save.
